Rosary of Reparation Against Sacrilegious “Pride Mass” At Our Lady of Grace Church, NJ

The pro-LGBT Rev. Alexander Santora is scheduled to offer a sacrilegious “Pride Mass” on June, 30 at Our Lady of Grace Church in New Jersey.

According to reports, Fr. Santora has said:

"The Church has to move in a new direction. First, we need to understand that one's orientation is given. It's not a choice... [O]ppressing one's orientation is not healthy or good. But somehow our theology has to catch up with where the world is.

From Father John A. Hardon's Catholic Catechism on Homosexuality:

46. What is the Church's basic teaching on homosexuality?

The Church distinguishes between the homosexual condition or tendency and homosexual actions. Homosexual actions lack the essential and indispensable purpose. They are therefore intrinsically disordered. Consequently, homosexual actions can never be approved (HP3).

47. Are homosexual actions morally evil by their very nature?

Yes, they are gravely sinful no matter how strong a person's homosexual tendency may be (HP3).
